

CONTACT: Edward R. Crews

Crews Communications

(804) 754-1225

GUMENICK PROPERTIES WINS FIVE HONORS IN LOCAL APARTMENT EVENT

Two Company Associates Gain Recognition For Professionalism, Outstanding Performance

HENRICO CO., VA. – Jill Levins and Brina Brigham recently received awards for their outstanding achievements in the multifamily industry from the Central Virginia Apartment Association.

Both women are employed by Gumenick Properties. They received formal recognition of their achievements during the association's Rammy Awards ceremony. Levins is a regional property manager. Brigham is a leasing specialist at the Malvern Manor Apartments in Richmond.

In addition, the company received the following honors:

- The Hamptons at Hunton Park -- Community of the Year - Average Rents $1,100 and Above
- The Hamptons at Hunton Park -- Come Play In My Pool Award
- Malvern Manor – Come Play In My Pool (tied with The Hamptons)
- The Hamptons at Hunton Park -- Best Landscaping & Curb Appeal
- The Hamptons at Hunton Park -- Community Service Award for a successful food drive.

The Central Virginia Apartment Association sponsors the annual Rammy Awards to recognize superior achievements in apartment community operations. Judges come from outside the Richmond area and grade apartments and individuals according to uniform and rigorous standards.

“Gumenick Properties is proud of Jill and Brina. Both are real professionals who are contributing to our shared success. In addition, we are pleased that the hard work of our team at the Hamptons at Hunton Park has received such public recognition. Their dedication and enthusiasm has made this a special and welcoming community,” said Skip Nash, Vice President for Property Management.

Based in Henrico, Gumenick Properties is an award-winning real estate development and management company with operations throughout the Southeast. Founded in the late 1940s, the company now engages in two primary lines of business – apartment community operations and homebuilding.

The company now owns and operates apartment communities in Florida, North Carolina and Virginia. Gumenick Properties also is engaged in homebuilding activities in Central Virginia. Over the years, it has acquired extensive experience in neighborhood revitalization. These projects meet many needs, including assisting to curb suburban sprawl, enhancing local tax bases and meeting long-term community goals set by elected leaders and professional planners. The company’s revitalization work always has been undertaken with respect for local sensitivities and needs. As a result, Gumenick Properties’ revitalization projects have garnered praise and ready acceptance from customers, civic leaders and neighbor